REFERENCES

“Reid Cure demonstrates excellence on and off the baseball field. His spiritual and emotional leadership is the best I have ever coached”
Jeff Sherman - MBU Alumni '03 / CHS Varsity Baseball Coach

“Reid Cure is one of the most respectable, dedicated, and determined young men I know. Reid is passionate about baseball and comes from a terrific, loving family.”
Joe Payne - Frisco Centennial High School AP English Lit/ Pre-AP English I / 9th Grade English Team Leader

“Reid is a talented and trustworthy young man. He will be proud to represent your school and MoBap will be proud of him”.
Ross Bebee Associate Pastor Fellowship of Frisco

“Reid is a great young man that I have gotten to know as his Young Life leader. Reid is a natural leader and handles responsibility well. When I need help with anything regarding Young Life, I know that Reid is someone I can count on to rise to the occasion.”
Cody Strange - Frisco Young Life Area Director

“I have enjoyed the privilege of working with Reid Cure for several years in our media booth. Reid has been quick to learn the operation of our sound, lighting and video stations. During his time of service, Reid has been a dependable member of our team. He willingly accepted assignments. I believe his attitude and actions in service to the media team speaks clearly to his determination to learn, his ability to complete assignments, his willingness to accept responsibility and to his character”.
Kenneth Cox - Fellowship of Frisco Media Team Leader

“As my assistant coach for 3 seasons, Reid demonstrated maturity, responsibility, compassion and leadership in dealing with players. His character shone through in the way he motivated everyone to do their best, encouraged those who struggled and easily stepped in as head coach when I had conflicts. Reid is an outstanding young man who has much to offer the world and a brilliant future ahead of him”.
Stephanie Petersson Youth Basketball Coach
